INDIANA JONES™

"It's not the years, honey. It's the mileage."

In 1981, a rugged-looking college professor ascended to the big screen and invited the world on a thrilling journey from jungle temples in Peru to the Egyptian desert in search of the mythical Ark of the Covenant.

From the first frame in Indiana Jones and the Raiders of the Lost Ark, Dr. Henry 'Indiana' Jones, Jr.<sup>TM</sup>, passionate archaeologist-slash-adventurer, captured the imaginations and hearts of would-be treasure hunters of all ages. Ever since, he has kept us on the edge of our seats with incredible whip-cracking action, witty dialogue, intricate plots and hard-hitting sidekicks. In a spectacular mix of mystery, myth and real-life historic events spanning from the mid-1930s to the 1950s, the unlikely protagonist finds creative ways to outmanoeuvre dastardly villains and dodge deadly booby traps. At every twist and turn, the centre of the stories are the passionate characters and relationships.

Over the years (and the mileage), Indiana Jones has excited generations of fans. With a thrilling series of feature films, a TV series, video games, theme park rides, novels and comics, no dust is likely to settle on this history professor's books anytime soon. And we keep coming back to revel in every detail.

Welcome to the jungle – enjoy building!

The Temple of the Golden Idol

More than 2,000 years old, the Temple of the Golden Idol is believed to guard the ancient Hovitos Warrior tribe's sacred relics, including a legendary gold idol of their most revered deity. Undeterred by the failures of previous expeditions and the betrayal of his sketchy hired helpers, Indiana Jones™ pursues the precious archaeological treasure at the behest of the National Museum.

Designed for warrior rite-of-passage rituals, and to protect it against intruders, the temple is riddled with treacherous booby traps, pitfalls, poisonous darts and, not least, a giant boulder. Armed with a ragged map and a talent for thinking on his feet, Jones eludes every obstacle until the final trap causes the temple to collapse. His arch-nemesis, fellow archaeologist René Belloq, snags the idol and Jones is forced to flee from the enraged Hovitos Warriors.

LIGHTS, LEGO® BRICKS, ACTION

"This is one of the most iconic movie scenes of all time. It really encapsulates everything great about Indiana Jones™. Treasure-hunting adventures, booby-trapped temples and daring escapes! I grew up watching the original trilogy and was so proud to be part of bringing this LEGO® version to life. The LEGO Group has worked with Disney/Lucasfilm Ltd. on other franchises before and our team had a great experience collaborating with their passionate Indiana Jones expert. I hope fans will love the result."

- Andrew Seenan, LEGO® Creative Lead, Senior Design Manager

"I'm sure I wasn't the only Indiana Jones fan who used to build my own LEGO temples as a kid and challenge my friends to steal treasures! Designing this model felt like a continuation of that. We wanted to create a super detailed, playful display model full of functions, 'dangers' and surprises. All triggers are hidden in the decorative ornaments in the base to mimic the movie model and let you retrace Indy's treacherous path. I especially enjoy that last function with the spotlight, lowering the idol and collapsing the temple."

- Harald Pofahl, LEGO® Design Master

"I really looked forward to creating the graphics for the set. I looked at previous LEGO Indiana Jones minifigures for comparison, researched assets online and re-watched the movies to find inspiration for where we could add even more new details. We got great feedback and suggestions from Disney/Lucasfilm Ltd. as well, and I think we ended up with some really funny details, like the weird and goofy-looking faces in the wall decors, the spiders on Satipo's back and his terrified facial expression as a result!"

- Casper Glahder, LEGO® Graphic Designer
