WELCOME TO HOTH

It may be a dark time for the Rebellion, but it's a great moment in LEGO® Star Wars history as we present one of the most - if not the most - requested Ultimate Collector Series model in recent years: The Imperial AT-AT walker from Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back.

We pursued new building techniques from across the galaxy to give you an authentic-looking, minifigure-scale model that would do its menacing movie counterpart justice and look amazing on display in your home or office. We hope you will feel the thrill of having the Imperial Starfleet hot on your heels as you discover the magnitude of the powers of the dark side. And with over 6,700 pieces, you may even have enough time to watch the entire saga while you build.

Jens Kronvold Frederiksen
Design Director & Creative Lead,
LEGO® Star Wars™

THE IMPERIAL ALL TERRAIN ARMoured TRANSPORT

At more than 20 meters tall, AT-AT walkers are the biggest, most powerful Imperial ground combat vehicles in the galaxy. Air-dropped directly into battle, the walkers are built to trample across any terrain and obliterate everything in their path. Terrain and ground sensors under the cockpit and in the feet scan and assess the environment.

It was important for the design team to get the proportions and external details right and include as many of the interior details as possible. Two pilots manoeuvre the walker – one driver, one gunner. A powerful reactor generates energy for the walker and all its functions. With facilities to transport dozens of assault soldiers, extensive ground weaponry and several reconnaissance vehicles, it's a devastating force to be reckoned with.
